

WIN BURSARY APPLICATION

This bursary has been created in support of Leadership Niagara's commitment to strengthen the inclusivity, equitable access and diverse representation of participants within our programs.

This scholarship is made available through the support of the Greater Niagara Chamber of Commerce and is available for a woman in business who lives and works in Niagara.

This woman can be self-employed, work for a small business, a non-profit, or for an employer that would otherwise not pay for leadership development training.

Women in Niagara is looking for an enthusiastic, self-starter who envisions themselves giving back to and being a leader for Niagara.

This bursary is for one (1) participant, full registration fee in the 2023-24 Community Leadership Development Program.
